

Intensive English Course

2014-2015

Newcastle

Newcastle is one of the most beautiful cities in the UK and is such a great place to be a student, was voted as #N1 city to study in the UK! Newcastle is a vibrant mix of historic, contemporary, cultural and stylish attractions and has become a world leader in culture. Here you can enjoy incredible architecture, cosmopolitan cuisine and world-class art.

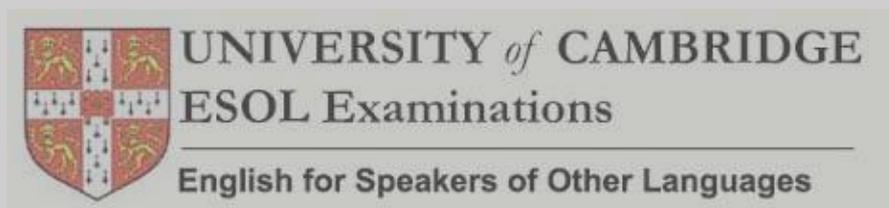

With a 2000 years old heritage and history and with world famous attractions in such a compact area there is something for our students to explore easily. With a stunning architecture, many art galleries and museums, music venues and concerts around the city, its massive selection of shops, you can find everything, from stylish boutiques to vintage shops and markets!

Newcastle has something for everyone and we are sure that our students will not leave disappointed, it is also a great base for exploring the North East and Scotland, visiting attractions such as Alnwick Castle or Hadrian's Wall or amazing cities like Edinburgh or York!

There is so much to explore!

This is an intensive course over 12 weeks for Intermediate to Advanced Students of English. The course includes essential grammar and vocabulary input to extend your knowledge of the English language and to increase fluency. It uses Cambridge English preparation and examination materials, which will prepare you for the most valuable English examinations in the world, recognised by over 13,500 institutions in 130 countries.

The course will, therefore, be invaluable if you wish to apply for work or to educational establishments in English speaking countries, preparing you for IELTS or Cambridge English examinations and to apply for work visas. It will increase your future educational or employment opportunities.
